MATRIMONIAL.

Frank Kelsey, a widower of 71, was married at Laporte, Ind., to Miss Josie Stephens, just 17.

Mrs. Addie Buzzell, of Bangor, Me., who is only 34, has been married and divorced five times.

At Pipestone, Minn., a man shot and fatally wounded a girl who refused to elope with him, and then committed suicide.

F. N. Bliven, of Pipestone, Minn., killed himself after fatally wounding a Miss Weigel, who refused to elope with him.

Miss Sue Irvine, daughter of Mrs. M. D. Irvine, of Boyle county, and John M. Gerard, of Bowling Green, were married Thursday.

The governor pardoned J. A. Reynolds, of Larue county, on the condition that he marry Miss Clark, for whom he was sent to the penitentiary.

Up in Wisconsin John Gray recently married Miss Mollie Blue. Another evidence that the Blue and the Gray are getting together.—Winchester Democrat.

Charlie Adams, one of Somerset's finest young business men, was married last week to Miss Ida Newell, the handsome daughter of John B. Newell, of Pulaski.

The bride of David Nicholson, of Parkersburg, W. Va., was killed by the bursting of an old musket, which was fired by one of her relatives who was celebrating the occasion.

B. W. Hart, of Boyle county, and Miss Lizzie B. Ferguson, of Jeffersonville, were married November 23, last. The fact did not become known until yesterday afternoon.—Friday's C. J.

"Women teachers who will pledge themselves not to marry" have been advertised for by the school board of Concordia, Kansas. Such an advertisement would catch no Kentucky girl. She'd forego the salary of a teacher rather than make such a pledge.

The Louisville Critic is authority for the statement that Miss Nettie Belle Smith, daughter of President Milton H. Smith, of the L. & N., is shortly to wed Dr. Felder, of Nashville. It will be remembered that a foolish young fellow killed himself for love of her a few weeks ago.

Hubble,

D. N. Prewitt gathered a car load of lambs here last week at 5c.

Miss Allie Harlan, of the Telephone Co. at Corbin, is at home on a vacation. J. W. Eubanks visited his sister last week at Eubanks Station. Mrs. Charley Crits, of London, is visiting her father, George Eubanks.

Henry House fell a bee tree a few evenings ago, took a portion of the honey and went back next day to get the remainder, but found that the tree had caught fire from his smoking torch the evening before and burned up.

Miss Katie White has returned from a four years stay in the missionary work in New York. John Lett, of Tennessee, was in with a bunch of stock ewes, and as the demand was good he sold out before he reached this place. Mrs. Joseph Frank is visiting J. J. Walker and family.

THE FALSE AND TRUE.

A DOUBLE ACROSTIC.

Sin holds within its iron chain
Remorse, regret and shame.
Earth knows no way to free such pain,
Than through the Savior's name.

Alas, for one who is so vile

Who will not turn and be His child.

When we have known the Master's voice

And felt His touch of love.

'Tis sweet to tell it and rejoice

Ride on in triumph, Savior King,

Salvation to the people bring.

Harry Whallen, a traveling circus performer, was cut open at his own request at the German hospital at St. Louis and fully three handfuls of hardware which he had swallowed within the past two weeks were taken from his stomach. It included pocketknives, ten-penny nails, tacks, screws, staples and glass. Whallen poses as a human ostrich and says this is the first time his diet has disagreed with him.

An attempt was made to assassinate President Felix Faure, of the French republic, at Paris. A bomb was exploded under his carriage while he was on his way to Long Champs. A man named Gallet has been arrested.

James Wilcox, a traveling man from Saratoga, N. Y., was found dead in his room at the Galt House, Louisville. Apoplexy is assigned as the cause.

One man was killed and four were seriously wounded in a general fight at Rock Springs, Va., which came up over a school trustee election.

Coleman, Shields & Co., employing several hundred men in their rolling mill at Warren, O., have closed down on account of lack of business.

LANCASTER.

The inquest held over the body of Josie Miller, colored, which was found in a cistern last week, resulted in a verdict of accidental drowning at an unknown hour, when no other person was present.

The brilliant and graphic sketch of the life and character of Col. T. P. Hill published in your last issue is the subject of much favorable comment and reflects great credit on the author, Judge M. C. Saufley.

On Friday Coroner Greenleaf was summoned down on Long Branch to hold an inquest over the body of Andy Meeks, colored, of Jessamine county, it having been found in the public road. The verdict of the jury was that death was caused by a violent hemorrhage of the lungs.

Some one writes from Hiattsville to the Central Record that the free turnpike advocates will meet at the courthouse Monday, 28th, county court day, and nominate a ticket for the county offices, regardless of polities. It is believed that this was done for a political purpose and that it will amount to no more than any other ordinary tempest in a tea pot.

J. W. Miller gave an elegant dinner to a number of his close friends Thursday. The occasion is said to have been a highly enjoyable one and the crowd consisted of Federal and Confederate veterans, democrats, republicans and a popular. The chairman of the county committee of the first named parties were present. It is said that J. P. Prather became eloquent while making a few remarks, in the course of which he said that they had free dinner and free turnpikes and all that is needed is free coinage.

Mrs. Fannie Farra, Mrs. M. D. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Elkin went to the poor house Sunday afternoon to hear Elder Gowen preach to the paupers, there being a good crowd of them present on that occasion. M. F. Elkin was here Saturday. He reports the Maccabees in a flourishing condition and will soon return to work up a revival in the lodge at this place.

Mr. Homer G. Price and wife, who lately married at Knoxville, are at the Lancaster Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson will entertain Mr. and Mrs. George D. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cook Tuesday evening.

The directors of our stock fair are very much annoyed at the announcement that Hall's railroad circus is billed for this place, July 17, the last day of the fair. This conflict would lessen the attendance at the fair and many property holders have signed an agreement not to lease them a lot on which to exhibit. A strong effort is being made in that direction to shut them out, but some have not signed and they will most likely find a lot. One man, who declined to sign the agreement, is very fond of a circus and says that pumpkins and corn would stop growing if we should refuse the management of a circus the right to pitch its tents in our community.

Politics is as capricious and changeable as dress and fashion. We have seen true democrats turn from their first love and kneel at the shrine of false gods. Now silver republicans are organizing and we have five parties, each claiming to advocate the only principles that will insure National prosperity and general welfare. It is believed that the republican party will lose as many silver advocates as the democrats will lose on the gold issue, and that will give the two old parties a fair fight in the future and result in democratic victory.

Although notice has been published of the several marriages last week, I am constrained to indite a few more lines regarding the Cook-Owsley marriage at the Christian church last Thursday. The church was decorated with the rarest flowers, most beautifully and artistically arranged. Miss Luella Batson dispensed sweet music and everything conspired to make it the most brilliant event of the season. The bride was, if possible, more beautiful than ever and the groom was quite handsome. Miss Mary Robertson, of Elizabethtown, was maid of honor and J. Y. Robinson was best man. W. O. and Letcher Owsley and Joe and Fleece Robinson were ushers. The ceremony by Elder George Gowen was very impressive. The couple is related to some of the largest and most prominent families in the State.

The cruel turnpike war is over for the present, a flag of truce having been hoisted by the fiscal court, the owners of the roads having accepted the terms offered, and the raiders, getting just what they want, free roads, will now proceed to give us a temporary rest and if bonds are voted in November it will be permanent. The court leased all the roads in the county, except part of the Stanford road, until Dec. 1, for a sum equal to the toll collected for the same time last year, or about $4,500. This deal will save the county about $30,000, as guards would have cost about $35,000. The reason the Stanford road was not leased, President D. W. Vandevere declined to lease a part of it. Stockholders are to keep the roads in repair. It is hoped that the raiders will let the post-office continue to run, let the court-house alone, and, above all, deal gently with the fiscal court.

VICINITY NEWS.

Richmond will have no fair this year because no suitable grounds can be secured.

Ison Lawson and Joseph Sears were held without bail at Barboursville for the killing of the father of the former. J. L. Harlow, an L. & N. brakeman, was assaulted by two tramps at Lebanon Junction and is in a critical condition.

While hunting near Jellico, Dempsey Fuston's gun was accidentally discharged, killing his twin brother, George.

A bird's-eye walnut log shipped last week from Shelbyville, was valued at $5,000. It was six feet long and six feet in diameter.

At Harrodsburg, one Bulger, alias Sam Giles, cut Ben Mills so seriously with a butcher knife that Mills is in a precarious condition.

The Reporter says the Odd Fellows of Somerset have moved into their elegant new hall and can truthfully boast of the finest lodge room in the State.

Mrs. Smith Hansford, of Harrodsburg, was re-elected president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which held a meeting in her town last week.

Somerset people will celebrate the 4th of July by having bicycle, horse, mule and foot races, balloon ascensions, shooting matches, &c., at the fair grounds.

The Fiscal court, fixed the county levy for 1897 at 47 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents on the \$100, which, with the State tax of 52 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents, makes the rate \$1 even.—Richmond Register.

The Somerset Paragon says that Col. Silas St. John, the present proprietor of Cumberland Falls Hotel, was badly injured in a fight with Ed Owens, one of the owners of the hotel.

The county attorney of Madison is in receipt of a female infant from near Ford, which had been deserted by its father. The attorney not being a man of family, is endeavoring to find a suitable home for the waif.

Toll-gate raiders burned a wooden bridge in Mercer county Friday night. The anti-mob law is growing very unpopular with the free pikers, and one taxpayer has volunteered to aid in the destruction of every gate in the county by daylight.

Dempsey Wilder, of Clay county, while attempting to take Betsy Jones from the house of Thomas Berry, near Red House, Madison, to elope with her was fired upon by Berry and severely wounded, a load of buckshot taking effect in his shoulder. He fell from the ladder but managed to pick himself up and escape, leaving a bloody trail behind.

Miss Mary Brown and Mrs. Annie Dunn, of New York City, quarreled over the ownership of a dog, when the latter gave the former a severe kick in the stomach, from the effects of which she died in a few hours.

It will require a big syndicate with lots of coin to control seven-tenths of the 515 registered distilleries in Kentucky. If the proposed deal is consummated it will revolutionize the whisky business.

The worst storm for many years swept over central Ohio Sunday doing great damage. Houses were unroofed and crops destroyed and wires blown down. The hail was as large as hen egg.

Gen. John B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, asks them to prepare for the selection, at the Nashville re-union of some one else as commander.

The American Book Company has sued the president of Iowa College, at Grinnell, Ia., for $100,000 for malicious libel in charging bribery and corrupt methods.

Two of the Kurds, accused of being connected with the murder of Frank Lenz, of Pittsburg, Pa., died in prison and the others arrested for the crime escaped.

Capt. George A. Tillett, of Knoxville, shot his son-in-law, John Glenn, to death, at Riverdale, Tenn., because he treated the former's daughter badly.

Asa W. Fisk, of Boston, son, of the late California capitalist, who was cut off in the will, has brought suit against his father's estate for $1,099,064.

A school teacher named Lipp fired into a crowd of charivaris at Rover, Ark., and killed Miss Leona Goodman.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

To Appal. Ct., S. J. SHACKELFORD
"Circuit Judge, M. C. SAUFLEY.
"Com'lth Attorney, J. S. OWSLEY, Jr.

Supt. Schools, GARLAND GINGLETON

MR. MCKINLEY proved a big drawing card for the Nashville centennial. People flocked from hundreds of miles around to see what a live president looks like and the gate receipts ran up to a large figure. His speech was decidedly common place, however, being a rather poorly expressed history of the State and the achievements of its citizens. It was not near up to Gov. Bradley's address, nor did it approach Gov. Taylor's oratorical gem in any particular, which concluded as follows: "I pledge them the honor of Tennessee that while they remain in our borders, the tariff question shall be outlawed by our hospitality and the money question shall be strangled by our courtesy. And when they depart from us we will pin upon the lapels of the President and each one of his party a sweet forget-me-not." The Southern people did all in their power to make the stay of the president pleasant and he went away feeling that the South isn't such a bad place after all and fully impressed with the fact that her resources, like her hospitality, are practically boundless.

JUDGE YOST says he has no intention of being a candidate for appellate clerk and very frankly admits that we were right when we remarked that what little brains he had were by a freak of nature located in his bowels. Both the assertion and the admission show that the judge is not such a natural "born dern fool," as Sut Lovingood elegantly termed a certain class of idiots as one would take him to be, and that there is some hope for the massive and good natured old tub of intestines, even if he does indulge in some incongruous remarks on our personal pachititude. No one who has ever seen that turgid mass of fat, which people through courtesy call Judge Yost, can feel anything but pity that nature should have wasted so much adipose tissue on so little gray matter. A seat in a circus side show is the only proper place for such lusus nature.

H. C. EVANS, Tennessee's would-be boss whom McKinley made commissioner of pensions, was so afraid the people wouldn't know he was on intimate terms with the president that he hustled him at once to his house in Chattanooga and snubbed the committee that went to wait on the president and tender him a public reception. In consequence, everybody is cussing Evans and telling what a very small potato he is.

THAT is indeed a sweet-scented set of nonentities the sign the call for a "National" democratic convention. There are 13 of them and their appeal will be as futile as their number is supposed to be unlucky. Having helped to turn the State over to the republicans these seekers for fame want to keep it there while they monkey yet a little longer as statesmen too pure and good for this wicked world.

GOV. BRADLEY, on being appealed to to restore certain convicts to their rights as citizens, because they would vote the republican ticket, made the very remarkable statement that such fact of itself did not entitle the men to have their civil rights restored. Heretofore that had been regarded as a sufficient plea and it is pleasant to note that it won't go hereafter.

COMMUNITIES which permitted the turnpike fiends to sow the wind are now reaping the whirlwind. Guards at the tollgates are an expensive luxury, but they should be put at every gate that their presence is necessary. The checking of lawlessness and the restoration of order are worth all they cost and mobs should be suppressed if it bankrupts the counties.

THE advance agent of prosperity, as McKinley was called so as to catch suckers during the campaign, brought no evidences along with him of returning prosperity, but his visit or something else helped to send the mercury up and increase the trade in palm leaf fans, which are to labor under a heavy tariff when the Dingley abortion supplants the Wilson bill.

PARDOXICAL as it may appear, the only black man in Congress is White. He represents a South Carolina district and averages well up with his republican colleagues in ability and is far ahead of them in blood, as he is doubtless the son of a statesman.

ALL is far from being lovely in the republican camp in the 7th. George Denny has been made referee in post-office appointment matters, and he is using his position to punish those who opposed his candidacy for Congress last year and advocated the support of Billy Breckinridge for the office. He also seems to have a special animosity against Col. Sam Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, whom he characterizes in his crushing way as one of those "old little Ohioans." It is only necessary to give men of Denny's calibre rope enough and they will soon hang themselves, as well as burst up the party which makes them leaders, and to this end we would put not a straw in their paths.

THE Frankfort Argus says the majority of people who compose the audiences of Revivalist B. F. Mills would go into hiding if the grand jury was in session. One would have guessed the composition of an audience that would sit and listen to such rot as the preacher is alleged to have made afloat the late democratic convention. Like preacher, like congregation.

IT is reported that acting Gov. Worthington pardoned a 10-year murderer the other day for no other reason than that he testified before the investigating committee that the prison fare is as good now as under democratic rule. But come to think of it, this is as good a reason as any for letting out a vile murderer on the community that had banished him.

GOV. BRADLEY has gone to Colorado Springs for a three-weeks' recuperation and old man Worthington is again running the pardon mill at full pressure and tremendous output. Now is the time to apply.

POLITICS

Hon. Jere South, elected lieutenant governor of Arkansas, is from Frankfort, Ky.

James L. Waddle, a No. 1 man, is being urged by the democrats of Pulaski to run for county judge.

J. Hunt McMurtry, of Garrard, is spoken of as a republican entry for clerk of the court of appeals. He is school superintendent at present.

The Texas House after a long wrangle decided to appoint a committee to investigate the charge that Northern professors in the State University are teaching republican politics.

The formal call for the republican State convention, to be held August 10, at Louisville, has just been issued by Chairman Barnett. There will be 1,000 delegate votes in the convention.

Occasionally the Senate turns from the trusts and combines and does something for the poor consumer. By a Senate amendment to the Dingley bill foreign built yachts can now be brought duty free.

John M. Higginbotham, of Lancaster, has been appointed a delegate to the National Farmers' Congress of the United States and Pan-American Agricultural Parliament, which meets in St. Paul August 31.

The shock of a foot ball accident caused a Buffalo youth to forget his past life. Unless there has been a great deal of libel afloat, it might be comforting for a few United States Senators to get together as the nucleus of a foot ball team.

The first test vote in the Senate showed that amendments to the sugar schedule approved by the republican caucus are sure to be adopted. The caucus amendments changing the House rate of 1875-1000 to 195-100 was adopted by a vote of 32 to 30.

The cotton crop report gives the total acreage as 24,091,394, as against 23,271,704 last year.

F. M. Ware at McKinley is agent for Buckeye Harvesting Machines. Call on him for all kinds of repairs.

Covington & Arnold, of Richmond, have bought a car load of corn from Potts & Duerson, of Madison, at $1.50.

Thompson Bros., the race horse men, refused $3,000 each for their 26 head of bangtails. Charles Fleishman made the offer.

The Grand Prix de Paris, the chief event of the French turf, was won by Doge, owned M. J. Arnaud. The race was worth $40,000.

Reports from a number of tobacco growing counties in Kentucky indicate a large reduction in acreage as compared with last year.

E. D. Stagg, of Vanarsdall & Co., Hustonville, was here Monday and bought 200 bushels of old wheat from Brown Bros. at 90c.—Jessamine Journal.

An aged bay mare, good walker, came to my place three weeks ago. Owner can get her by paying for her keep and this notice. Silas Sandige, Shelby City.

J. M. VanMeter sold to J. C. Johnson over 100 ewes, to go last half of July, at $1.50, a very low figure. Johnson also bought 21 1,400-pound cattle at 4c, to be delivered from June 20 to July 15.—Advocate.

The big wheat growers of Jessamine county are forming a combine and will make an effort to hold their grain this year by stowing it away and borrowing money on it until a fair price for the cereal can be realized.

J. W. Bales, agent for Schwartzchild & Co., bought of Walker & Herdon, 85 head of 1,500 pound export cattle at 4c. J. C. Hurst, of Albany, was here with 500 sheep and sold 218 to J. A. Vince of Jessamine, at $2.40.—Richmond Register.

A big crowd attended court yesterday, but very little business was done. There were about 150 cattle on the market and probably 100 of them changed hands. Hudson & Page, of Adair, sold 30 steer calves at $15.75. Joab Rigney sold a bunch of heifers at 24 and some cows at 24c. Butcher stuff was slow at 2 to 24c.

Woods & Lynn bought a car load of cows, steers, and steers at $9 to 34c; a lot of hogs at 24c and 112 sheep for $225. There was no demand for horses or mules.

Additional Local.

EXCURSION.—Rev. Walter Lackey asks us to say that the South District Association of Baptists will convene at Elizabethtown Thursday and continue over Sunday. An excursion will be run from here Sunday at $1.50 for the round trip. Special rates will be made delegates returning who go on the excursion and want to remain several days.

***

FOR NEXT SESSION.—The trustees of the Stanford Male and Female Academy met Saturday afternoon and after electing W. M. Bright a trustee in the place of Mr. Joseph Severance, deceased, selected as principal for next session, Prof. Hardin Craig, of Owenton. Miss Mattie Paxton was chosen as his assistant. Prof. E. L. Grubbs was unanimously chosen by the trustees of the public school and Miss Annie McKinney defeated a field of nearly a dozen for assistant. The selections are all good and they insure first-rate schools for the coming session.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Wm. Elliott jointly charged with Campbell and Acceslinger with robbing the meat-house of James Hughes at Rowland, was tried by a picked up jury and given three years. He was defended by Hon. R. C. Warren, who cut two years from the sentences of the other two, who got five years each.

When Harman Acceslinger was arraigned for trial the other day for robbing a meat-house, he said he was unable to employ counsel, and Judge Saufley named J. N. Saunders, W. S. Burch and C. E. Tate to defend him. He was given five years and thereupon asked the judge if he could hire a lawyer would he give him a new trial. And now each of the young men are wondering what he meant.

The court was not in session yesterday but will cut and come again to-day.

A shooting and cutting affray occurred near Big Stone Gap, Va., in which two men, one an officer, were killed and another wounded.

Ed Goddard, coke puller at the Minco coke ovens, was run over by a coke engine and will probably die. He was lying asleep on the track at the time of the accident.

A filibustering expedition from America succeeded in landing a cargo of arms and supplies in Cuba. They were attacked by Spanish gunboats, but succeeded in their purpose and made good their escape.

One on Them.

The shade of Noah perceived his opportunity. "Why did I build the ark of goopher wood?" he repeated. "Why, so I wouldn't have to goopher wood."

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

THE best is cheapest. That's why our paints, lead and oil are cheapest. Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. W. H. TRAYLOR was in Cincinnati last week.

Mrs. DR. J. M. BRYANT was sick several days of last week.

Mrs. H. J. McROBERTS and daughter are visiting her mother at Harrodsburg.

MISS LEE BOBBITT, of Danville, is visiting Miss Little Peyton and other relatives.

MISS BERTHA MORSE, of Hustonville, is visiting Mrs. W. O. Speed—Somerset Paragon.

Mrs. W. P. WALTON will entertain the "Economical Club" next Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6.

MR. W. S. HOCKER graduated at the Kentucky University last week with the degree of B. A.

MISSES ADDIE AND MARGARET HOLMES, of Crab Orchard, have been guests at Mrs. W. H. Higgins'.

MISS MARY REID has gone to Lexington to be one of a charming house party at Miss Jane Todd Watson's.

P. W. CARTER, JR., is back from Louisville, where he has been attending the Louisville Dental College.

E. M. PETTUS, of Somerset, spent a week or so with his brothers, W. H. and R. H. Pettus, near Gilberts Creek.

MRS. NANCY RAGLAND MCCLURE and sister, Miss Wheeler Ragland, of Winchester, are guests of Mrs. A. W. Carpenter.

MISSES GRACE TUDOR and Bettie Edmiston, of Crab Orchard, passed up to McKinney Saturday to visit Mrs. H. D. McClure.

MRS. LOTTIE HOLMES and Prof. C. H. Holmes are back from Birmingham, where the latter has occupied a chair in a College faculty.

WILLIE H. AND RUSSELL S. DYCHE, the bright young sons of Editor A. R. Dyche, of the London Echo, spent Sunday here seeing the sights.

MRS. J. J. MCKINNEY, of the Mt. Salem section, was painfully hurt and bruised Sunday by jumping from her buggy when the horse became unmanageable.

A DELIGHTFUL party was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Traylor Friday night to their pretty daughter, Miss Ethel. Some 40 or 50 were present and were royally entertained.

They made it so pleasant for Broker Chapman, who is in contempt of the Senate committee, in the Washington jail that he remained 10 hours after his sentence had expired. It is this sort of hospitality of the law that makes its transgression so popular.

MISS MARY COWEN, of the College faculty, and her handsome sister, Miss Mabel Cowen, who had been visiting her, returned to their home in Batavia, O., Saturday. After what we hope will prove pleasant vacation, the former will return to her post here, where as a teacher and as a lady, she enjoys the respect and friendship of everyone.

MISSES EMMA L. MARTIN and Mary P. Harris, of the College Faculty, left Tuesday, the former for Gallatin, Tenn., her old home, and the latter to visit awhile in Russellville and Adairville, Ky., before returning to her home at Abingdon, Va. The patrons of the school and their legion of friends are glad to know that both will return next session. They have not only proven themselves superior teachers, but have endeared themselves to the community in many ways.

MR. CARL HANSER, of Louisville, traveling agent for McCormack Machines, was here Saturday looking after the local agency. He had the skin of a rattle snake that he had killed the day before in Rockcastle county. It was very large and by the number of rattles was 10 years old. Mr. Hanser came to this country from Germany 15 years ago and walked from Livingston to London where he lived along time and made much money. He is the father of 13 children, 11 of whom are living.

MISS LINDA OWSLEY will leave for Nashville to-day to visit her sister and see the Exposition.

MR. MAX SALINGER was up from the city yesterday relieving the rush in the Louisville Store.

LITTLE Miss Mamie Jackson, of London, who has been visiting Miss Sotie Alcorn, returned yesterday.

MR. J. Y. SYMPSON, a Casey county patron, was in to see us yesterday. He reports fine crops and good prospects.

MR. JAMES MARET, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, was here yesterday, but seeing how scarce money was, left in short order.

MRS. WALTER CHENAULT, of Fort Scott, Kansas, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Beazley, left yesterday for Mt. Sterling.

MISSES AMANDA AND MINNIE CARSON, of McKinney, and Mary Warren, of Ewell, have been visiting Misses Maude and Annie Douglas.

FROM a circular he sends us we learn that Prof. J. M. Hubbard is giving private instruction in Ancient Languages, Mathematics and English in St. Louis.

DR. AND MRS. C. A. COX and Mrs. Emily Saufley left yesterday to spend two weeks at Flat Lick with Mine Host, Capt. O. P. Ely. The doctor says they are all going fishing.

MR. H. R. FIDLER, of Gallatin, Tenn., a nephew of the late Capt. J. C. Rodemer, was up yesterday to attend the sale of his farm at Rowland. The captain, who was a noted railroad conductor, died more than a year ago.

MR. E. G. WALLER was taken ill with cramp colic on his engine at Rowland Saturday night and had to leave it. He is now at George B. Warren's and is still very sick. His wife came up from Lebanon Junction to wait on him Sunday morning.

HOME NEWS.

BORN, to the wife of W. E. Williams, on the 12th, a 10-pound boy.

50 ENGRAVED cards and plate for $1. Latest styles. Danks, the jeweler.

BLACK Enamel Roof Paint. Guaranteed to last five years. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

ANOTHER boy has arrived at John B. Foster's and he is said to be an unusually fine looking youngster.

THE court of appeals reversed the decision of the Garrard circuit court in the case of Hubble vs. Dunlap.

MONEY.—Miss Kate Blain, superintendent, tells us that the remaining 10 per cent due the teachers is in her hands ready for distribution.

CITY taxes are due again and Marshall Newland is after the citizens with a sharp stick. The penalty of 6 per cent will be added on and after July 1.

THE Somerset Reporter says that the republicans down there mistook the advertising car of Clark's circus for the advance wagon of prosperity and flock ed to it by the hundreds.

W. L. McCARTY, proprietor of the Kings Mountain Canning Co., tells us he is enlarging his factory and preparing to put in a good deal of new machinery. He says he has contracted for 207 acres of tomatoes but on account of the dry weather all of the ground has not yet been planted.

ONE DAY OF GRACE.—Walter Carter, the well-known K. C. brakeman, is hardly off with the old line before he is on with the new. He tells us that on Saturday next he will wed Miss Ollie Kidwell, a Paint Lick beauty. He says his suit for divorce, which will certainly come up Friday, will be through with in abundant time for the ceremony.

PYTHIANISM EXPOSED.—Messrs. Boyle Nichols and Charlie Stanwood, of Danville, were here a few days since advertising Hon. J. H. Powell, the noted lecturer, who will be at the Danville Opera House Thursday night and present his favorite subject, "Pythianism Exposed." A number of the Knights of Pythias here will go over to him.

IF you are going to California on the 29th, it is time you were advising Capt. Frank Harris at Lebanon of the fact. The round-trip fare will be but $54 and the trip will be worth a fortune to those who can take it. The occasion of the low rates is the meeting of the International Convention of Christian Endeavorers, of whom 20,000 are expected to be present.

BAD LUCK.—Josh Jones, the Hanging Fork farmer, has been playing in bad luck for the past 10 days, during which time he has lost by death four cattle, which were large steers, died from eating clover, a fine milk cow died from an operation and the fourth, a cow, as well as the mule, died from no apparent cause. Mr. Jones is very much worried over his streak of bad luck and is anxiously awaiting a turn for the better.

FRUIT Jars and Jelly Glasses of all kinds at Warren & Shanks.

THE soda water at Penny's is pure, cold and refreshing.

CUT roses for contest. Orders taken to-day and to-morrow.

DR. W. D. TARDIF has built an office on his lot near the Baptist church, and has gone regularly into the practice of medicine.

FOUR LEGS.—Mr. Geo. A. Eubanks sent us word that he has a lively and healthy young turkey with four legs, all of which it uses in walking.

WE unintentionally omitted the name of James F. Cummins in Boss Davison's slate in our last issue. It has been a foregone conclusion for months that he will be nominated to succeed himself as county clerk.

THE colored excursion from Louisville to Richmond was loaded to the guards. Nearly all of the former residents of Stanford, who now live in Louisville, took advantage of its cheap rates and paid their friends a visit.

MISS KATE BLAIN asks us to say to the teachers that the examination will be at the College chapel next Friday, as circuit court is in session. She also wishes all who intend to go to the Bowling Green meeting to let her know by that day.

THE farm of the late J. C. Rodemer was sold by Commissioner R. C. Warren yesterday to Col. W. H. Dudderar for $1,200, which is less than the cost of the residence on it. There are 10 acres of it and it lies in the town limits of Rowland.

IN the county court yesterday, Judge Dawson probated the will of James R. Warren. After his wife's life interest, the property is given to Misses Maria, Emma and Effie Warren. The will is dated Feb. 14th, 1879 and appoints Mr. Joseph Severance, executor.

IN order to let everybody attend the elocutionary contest at Walton's Opera House next Friday night, Manager Gus Hofmann has very kindly postponed the opening of Crab Orchard Springs to Wednesday, 23d, so we are informed by Mrs. Hofmann, who with Mrs. E. G. Dick and Mrs. Lena Mosely Ragsdale, were here yesterday.

THE republican county committee, which is still presided over by George M. Davison, held a meeting yesterday, and fixed county court day in August as the time to nominate candidates for county offices. Each of the 12 committeemen will select two other men and the 36 will make the nominations. In other words, the democratic plan is adopted exactly. All this of course is mere formality. The boss has already picked out the men to be nominated and they are in part as we gave them in our last issue.

TO NASHVILLE.—Tickets to Nashville, on account of Confederate veterans, will cost $4.60 for the round-trip, and be honored via Louisville in either direction. Stop-over will be allowed at Glasgow Junction to enable passengers to visit Mammoth Cave. Application for stop-overs should be made to conductors. Round-trip rate from Glasgow Junction to the Cave during the exposition is as follows: From 1 to 9 persons $1.50 each; 10 to 24, $1.25 each; 25 and over $1 each. Arrangements have been made to run the Standard party to Louisville in time to catch special train there at noon. J. S. Rice, Agent.

YOUTHFUL COUPLE.—Mr. John W. Moore, who was up from Casey Saturday, told us of the marriage of his niece, Miss Laura Moore, aged 13, to Charlie Tombs, 18. On Thursday night the two young people started to Tennessee to be made one, when they were overtaken by Welby Moore, a brother and guardian of the girl. After some consultation with Mr. Moore he gave his consent to the marriage, and the young man having the consent of his father, it was agreed to marry at Liberty. Notwithstanding it was almost midnight when license and a preacher were procured, at that solemn hour the two happy hearts were bound together.

THE program for the elocutionary contest at the Opera House Friday night is now complete, with two more names added, making nine in all. Misses Edwinia Cochran, of Eminence, will read "Mark Twain's Literary Nightmare," and Miss Ella May Saunders, of Livingston, "Lil, the Forsaken." The contest promises to draw people from a dozen towns and to create an interest bounded only by the acquaintanceship of the popular young ladies. Reserved seats are now on sale at W. B. McRoberts' at 75 cents and the prospects are that all the seats on the lower floor will have to be reserved.

Rev. W. R. Lloyd, the eminent divine who held such a successful meeting here sometime since, will be one of the judges and Hon. W. I. Williams, of Lancaster, another, but the third has not been decided upon. The opera house will be beautifully decorated. The contestants, judges, ushers and managers will be given a banquet on the evening of the contest.

FOUR suits against insurance companies, growing out of the death of the late M. W. Johnson, of Garrard county, and in which judgments aggregating $38,604 are asked for, have been brought in Louisville by Administrator J. M. Higginbotham. The companies claim that his death resulted from strychnine poison.

THE weather has been fearfully hot for several days. The mercury reached 96 Sunday and remained at that altitude nearly all day, having fallen only two degrees at 4 o'clock. Yesterday was just as hot and the sweltering court day crowd caught it fore and aft. Showers, which are greatly needed, were promised for last night and fair, slightly cooler for to-day.

THE fiscal court met yesterday to make arrangements for the payment of $9,000 in bonds of the county now due. There are $2,000 on hand, which will be used toward their payment and the balance will be raised by the sale of $7,000 more of bonds. Hon. R. C. Warren addressed the court and asked it to rent all the pikes and free them till Dec. 1, by which time the question of a bond issue will have been settled, and pay the companies what their books show they tool in for the same time last year, they to keep the roads in repair. Squire John Bailey made a motion to rent the pikes and the question will be acted on at a meeting to be called by the county judge. Judge Varnon and others made speeches against the proposition.

THE annual excursion from Louisville to Richmond was loaded to the guards. Nearly all of the former residents of Stanford, who now live in Louisville, took advantage of its cheap rates and paid their friends a visit.

MISS KATE BLAIN asks us to say to the teachers that the examination will be at the College chapel next Friday, as circuit court is in session. She also wishes all who intend to go to the Bowling Green meeting to let her know by that day.

THE Stanford Female College has closed another very pleasant and profitable year to teachers and pupils, if not to the management. The general depression in everything requiring money to run it, has had its effect on schools and this one has proved no exception, though President Wm. Shelton is reasonably well satisfied with the year's work, considering everything. He has given our people a good school, worthy of a liberal patronage, and it is hoped that when the next session opens Sept. 6, it will be under more favorable financial conditions and with a largely increased attendance.

THE annual concert was given at Walton's Opera House Thursday night to a fair audience. Dr. Shelton made a few introductory remarks and Rev. J. B. Crouch invoked divine blessing. A piano duet by Misses Hattie Fowler and Anna Darst and a piano solo by the latter were well executed and was followed by the "Six Little Maids From School," represented by Little Peachesy Baughman, Allie Huffman, Mary Higgins, Eunice Earp, Virginia Bourne and Mary McRoberts, who acted their parts gratifyingly to parents and teacher. Miss Pattie Alcorn rendered a piano solo, Misses Anna Darst and Janie Weare a duet and Miss Hattie Fowler and Miss Janie Weare a solo each in manner so correct and skillful that they won much applause. The Doll Drill by little girls was as cute and as sweet as could be, while the Sword Drill by 16 young ladies, with Mrs. Nannie Saufley as drill master, though she did not make herself visible, was given with almost the precision of West Point Cadets, the young ladies looking quite soldierly in their pretty uniforms. Their gesticulations, as Mrs. Saufley recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade," made the excellent recitation decidedly impressive. The vocal duet by the Misses Cowen was very appropriately "The Sisters" and they sang it in charming unison and sweetest cadence. Miss Mary Cowen also sang "Farewell My Native Land" and was given such a prolonged encore that she again appeared and sang. Our people delight to hear this sweet singer and she, unlike many vocalists, always responds to their requests. Another very delightful feature of the pleasant program was a beautiful violin solo by that wonderfully gifted little artiste, Miss Isabella Bailey, who also very gracefully responded to an encore.

THE closing exercises Friday morning at the same place consisted of piano solos by Misses Roberta Cash and Etta Belle Cloyd, duet by Misses Hattie Weare and Cloyd, an essay, "The True Aim of Life," by Miss Lena Griffin and the essay contest for the Walton medal by Misses Stella McClary, subject, "Joys of Home;" Mattie Menefee, "Some Things That Are Worth While;" Linda Miller, "Looking Forward to the End" and Nannie Watson, "Five Important Elements of Success." The subject matter was original and showed study and research. Each young lady had her champions, but the judges, Messrs. P. M. McRoberts, S. M. Logan and J. N. Saunders, decided in favor of Miss Miller who is very proud of the honor. A piano solo, "By Moonlight," admirably executed by Miss Mabel Cowen called forth much applause and favorable comment. Miss Stella Ballou then read her graduating essay, entitled "What We May Do," with considerable elocutionary effect. It was well conceived, beautifully expressed and showed that she is a worthy member of a very talented family. She was the recipient of many flowers and other tokens of appreciation. Dr. Shelton presented her with the diploma, gave her commendation as a student of model deportment and after a few words with reference to the future of the school pronounced the exercises and the session at an end.
